Hi _____,

I hope you are fine. This April I will be coming to Japan to live for the next few years. I already have a job and an apartment, and I'm really looking forward to moving to Japan. All my life I've had pets and I would like to have one in Japan as well. I know that Japanese apartments are small, so I wanted to ask you what kind of pet would be good to have in Japan. What do you think would be the best pet for someone living alone to get, and if you could give me three or four reasons why, I would appreciate it.

Jason

Hi Jason,

Thank you for your email.
